

Hope High School Honor Graduates Named

Janet McKenzie — Co-valetictorian

Dale Zinn — Co-valetictorian

Pat McGill — Co-valetictorian

Top Students Active in School Work

Three of the five 1956 honor graduates have a perfect grade point average of 6.00 and have been named as co-valetictorians, according to Principal James Stewart. Those seniors are Pat McGill, Janet McKenzie, and Dale Zinn.

Named as co-salutatorians with a grade point average of 5.882 are Mary Rains Lewis and Linda Moore.

These five seniors are also leaders in campus activities. Pat is editor of the "Bobcat," a member of the Hi-Lights staff, English IV Club, Rainbow Girls, Senior play cast, National Honor Society, and was a homecoming maid. She is parliamentary of the Quill and Scroll Society, historian of the FTA and attended the National Scholastic Press Association meeting in Chicago.

Janet, who is parliamentary of the Student Council and FTA, is bulletin board chairman of the National Honor Society, treasurer of the Library Club, majorette of the band, and secretary of the English IV Club. She is also a member of the Chemistry Club, Rainbow Girls, was a homecoming maid, and was elected Most Intelligent and Most Versatile girl in the Senior Who's Who.

Winner of the Baugh-Lomb Award for outstanding work in science, Dale is president of the National Honor Society, a member of the Golf Team, Chemistry Club, English IV Club, Student Council, DeMolay, "Hi-Lights" and "Bobcat" staffs, and manager of the book store. He was elected the boy Most Intelligent, Most Studious and Most Likely to Succeed in the Senior Who's Who.

Besides being the girl with the Best Personality and the Friendliest in the Senior Who's Who, Mary is secretary of the National Honor Society, and a member of the following organizations: Rainbow Girls, Library Club, and English IV Club. She was also a cheerleader, member of the senior play cast, and a homecoming maid.

Most Studious, Most Likely to Succeed, and Most Dependable are the titles given Linda in the election of the Senior Who's Who. She received the DAR Good Citizen Award, and an office secretary. She holds the office of President of the FTA, treasurer of the National Honor Society and Student Council, vice president of the Chemistry Club, and is a member of the English IV Club.

Heavy Fines in Texarkana Court

Texarkana — Heavy fines were assessed Thursday in Arkansas Municipal Court of Texarkana. P. E. Gray, 32, Patmos, Ark., was fined $350, sentenced to ten days in jail for driving while intoxicated. He was involved in a minor accident and his drivers license revoked, this being the second conviction in a year. Fizzell Franks, 34, Texarkana, was fined $250, ten days in jail, driver's license revoked on the same charge.

Cypriots Hang 2 Britons; French Kill 500 Rebels

NICOSIA, Cyprus. — (UP) — The pro-Greek underground leader in Cyprus announced today he has hanged two British soldier hostages in retaliation against the British hanging of two Cypriot gunmen yesterday.

The news electrified British headquarters from Nicosia to London despite threats by the pro-Greek underground (EOKA) to extract biblical vengeance for the hangings — an eye-for-an-eye.

A British military spokesman in Nicosia said "there is not one shred of evidence that Lance Corporal (Gordon) Hill was held as a hostage by Eoka or any other organization." There was no official word on Lance Corporal Ronnie Shilton, the other man the underground claimed it had hanged.

But special English-language leaflets of the underground group were distributed in Nicosia this morning announcing "with regret Continued on Page Two

Joins Protest of Ark-La Billing Plan

LITTLE ROCK (Special) — The 150-unit Rivercliff Apartments here has joined in the swelling tide of protest aroused by the new apartment rate policy of the Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company.

Charging Rivercliff stands to lose heavily under the revision, W. A. Cheek, manager of the apartments, said he had lodged a protest with Joe C. Hardin, vice president and general manager of Ark-La, and further told Hardin he did not intend to stop with that.

Rivercliff is composed of four separate buildings, each with a gas meter. Cheek said he had been considering taking action toward forcing the company to grant him single metered service for all the buildings.

Before he had done anything about that, however, he was notified by the gas company that henceforth he would be billed at the domestic rate, multiplied by the number of Rivercliff apartments. That would raise Rivercliff fuel costs at least 50 per cent, Cheek estimated.

Heretofore, Rivercliff has been billed at the commercial rates, in accordance with schedules on file with the state Public Service Commission and the Little Rock City Council. No Councilmen apparently took note last Monday night of what appeared to be a routine notice from the gas company that it would bill multiple-unit dwellings at domestic instead of commercial rates.

The notice, in the form of an amendment to existing schedules, was read to the Council, which ordered it filed. Now Cheek is asking city authorities to take the amendment out of the files and permit him and others affected by it to be heard in opposition. He said that City Attorney O. D. Longstreth Jr., had promised to co-operate, and that Alderman J. W. Horner, chairman of the Council's Utilities Committee, was ready to call a hearing if the matter is referred to his group.

City councils have jurisdiction in utility rate matters jointly with the Public Service Commission, and ordinances prohibiting application of domestic rates, instead of commercial, to apartments could, if passed, lead to an appeal to the PSC.

The state agency granted permission for the Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Co., and also the Fort Smith Gas Co., to deviate from a long-established rule that all utility billings should be on the basis of meter measurements. The PSC, in orders May 29 and May 30, authorized the gas companies in both of which W. R. Stephens of Little Rock is heavily interested to multiply the number of apartments by each step in the rate schedules, where all are served by a single meter.

In Rivercliff's case, the minimum rate, $1.10 per 1000 cubic feet of gas, has applied only to the first 4,000 feet used, since there are four meters; whereas under the new arrangement the stepdown to 47 cents per 1,000 cubic feet would not come until after 150,000 cubic feet had been used.

Rivercliff's management has instructed its attorney, Martin Fulk, to review the PSC orders and Ark-La's schedules, and Cheek said the apartments company is ready to take whatever action, before the City Council, the PSC or the courts, that the lawyer recommends.

He said that Rivercliff is in much the same situation as the Hot Springs apartment operator who has gone to the City Council there with their complaints against Ark-La.

Ark-La Increase Protest Considered

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An appeal from a Public Service Commission order for a $4,600,000-a-year increase in natural gas rates to large industrial users was taken under advisement by Circuit Judge J. Mitchell Cockrill yesterday.

The PSC order was protested by nine private companies and the federal government, the latter on behalf of military facilities near Pine Bluff and Camden.

The Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., which was granted the increase urged that it be upheld.

The higher rate now is being collected under a bond guaranteeing refunds if they should be ordered.

$2 Billion More for Agriculture Dept. Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee recommended today that Congress boost by nearly two billion dollars the budget of the Agriculture Department as compared with this year.

Most of this would go to make up losses on price support programs.

The committee sent to the House for consideration next week a bill to provide $1,983,512,583 in new money to finance farm programs in the bookkeeping year which starts July 1.

In a formal report accompanying the bill, the committee complained of "trying times for American agriculture" and said that for three years prior to 1956 President Eisenhower had urged what it termed drastic cuts in department funds.

In all three years, the committee added, Congress restored most of the funds cuts from the department's budget by Eisenhower. In the new bill, it cut his requests slightly.

For regular programs of the department, the committee recommended $783,061,708, a budget cut of $3,787,700; for special activities, $271,163,682, no reduction, and for corporate expenses, $928,287,178, no reduction.

Don't Impose Peace, Warns U. N. Envoy

By HARRELSON UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld has warned the Security Council not to try to impose a peace settlement on Israel and her Arab neighbors.

Reporting on his recent mission to the Middle East, Hammarskjöld said the cease-fire agreements he negotiated could start a chain reaction toward peace.

But he also said (1) a final settlement may still be far off, (2) the initiative must come from the Middle East countries themselves and (3) no attempt must be made to impose a settlement from the outside.

The secretary general returned to New York Sunday after getting Israel and Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Jordan to reaffirm the cease-fire pledges they made originally in the 1949 armistice agreements.

He recommended no specific steps for the 11-nation Security Council to take. He made clear, however, that he feels both the U. N. and individual countries should limit their role to encouraging and supporting any peace efforts initiated by the Middle East countries themselves.

This was interpreted as an attempt to head off any move by the big powers to step into the picture or any move in the Security Council to take drastic measures.

In contrast to this, British informants in London reported that Western and Soviet diplomats are discussing the advisability of asking Hammarskjöld to go back to the Middle East to promote a permanent Palestine peace settlement. The Arabs previously have rejected all suggestions of such a peace treaty.

Hammarskjöld's report said the new cease-fire agreements were a necessary initial step, which may have opened the door to "new fruitful developments."

Insurance Men Name Officers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dan Pierce of Little Rock today was named president of the Arkansas State Life Underwriters Association. Pierce is a Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co. agent.

Three vice presidents were named at the group's annual sales congress here. They are Mrs. Nona Dison, Mutual Life of New York, of Paragould; Morgan L. Phillips, Lincoln National of Fort Smith, and Garland Sweeney, Union Life, of Pine Bluff.

Half-Million Auto Workers Are Idled

DETROIT (UP) — Sagging sales and resultant production cutbacks today idled some half-a-million auto workers throughout the nation.

The giant General Motors Corp., employing some 380,000 hourly-rated workers, shut down all its automotive assembly operations for one day "to balance production with current customer demand."

This order put a bulk of the GM work force on the list of idled which was estimated at 123,000 in the auto industry at the end of last week.

Estimates of the total unemployed indefinitely and in temporary layoffs thus totaled close to a half-million.

Automotive news said production was running 23 per cent below last year's record pace.

Studebaker-Packard, which absorbed losses totaling $29 million last year, reported a loss of more than $14 million in the first quarter of 1956. S-P President James W. Nance spent most of this week in New York huddling with investment bankers and financial advisers.

Both Curtiss-Wright and Studebaker-Packard denied reports of a merger. But Studebaker-Packard still looked for a financial angel either in the form of (1) a merger with a firm that could write off S-P's losses in tax gains; (2) an additional $100 million in defense work; (3) a $100 million loan it has sought for four months.

Two Executed by Firing Squad in Utah

By HOWARD S. BENEDICT

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP) — Volunteer firing squads executed two men at dawn today for a murder they committed more than six years ago.

The rifleman fired at 5:14 a. m. A doctor pronounced Verne Alfred Braasch and Melvin Leroy Sullivan dead one minute later.

Braasch, 30, of Reinbeck, Iowa, and Sullivan, 25, of Kansas City, Mo., were convicted of the Oct. 22, 1949, slaying of a Beaver, Utah, service station attendant.

They took $20 from the station. Legal action delayed three previously scheduled executions. The execution was at the Utah State Prison, 20 miles south of Salt Lake City.

Shaking hands betrayed the taut nerves of the two killers as they were strapped, side by side, in execution chairs in the prison compound. A shot of morphine administered by a doctor quieted them.

A black hood was placed over the head of each and black heart-shaped targets pinned over their hearts.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Wells from the Iron County, where the pair was convicted, read the death warrants. He then asked the condemned men if they had anything to say. They both said, "no."

Wells waved his hat as a signal and 10 rifles — five in each execution squad — cracked in unison. Four bullets drilled into the targets pinned to each of the killers. One rifle in each squad contained a blank shell — no one knew which.

Soviets Call Missing Skin Diver a Spy

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet press added its voice today to the outcry over the mysterious disappearance of a British skin diver near a Soviet cruiser in Portsmouth harbor.

The Communist newspaper Pravda and the Soviet government organ Izvestia charged the frogman was engaged in "shameful" spying.

Lionel (Buster) Crabb, 46, a retired naval commander, vanished April 19 on an underwater mission near the Soviet cruiser Orzhonikidze, anchored in Portsmouth Harbor. The ship had brought Soviet Premier Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev here for a 10-day visit and was waiting to take them home.

The Admiralty announced only that Crabb was missing and presumed dead. His body has not been recovered. British newspapers and Labor members of Parliament demanded further explanation, and Prime Minister Eden agreed yesterday to a House of Commons debate on the case Monday.

Dispatches from Moscow said the Soviet newspapers splashed two-column stories on the frogman's disappearance.

LSU Panty Raids Bring in Police

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Louisiana State University which had not decided on disciplinary action for participants of one panty raid, today had another near-riot to consider.

An estimated 700 men students headed for the women's dormitories last night with plans for a panty raid. Many were dissatisfied with the way Wednesday night's unsuccessful raid was broken up by police, who were forced to use tear gas. That raid also resulted in 42 arrests, 20 of them high school students. LSU took no immediate action on its students.

Police used tear gas again last night to disperse the students who shot blank cartridges, hurled clouds of dirt, bricks, iron pipe and rotten eggs, broke windows and exploded firecrackers.

Three were arrested. No injuries were reported.

The outnumbered campus police force was augmented by state troopers, city police and sheriff's officers. The fire department also was called out but it refused to turn water on the students. Fire Chief Robert Bogan said he feared the students would cut the hoses.

Warnings blared out over loudspeakers that the campus would be placed under martial law if the students refused to behave.

Reason for Act Is 'Political Interference'

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two state members quit their positions at the State Hospital for Nervous Diseases here today. Supt. Ewing M. Crawfis announced the resignations and said "at least three others are coming on."

The resignations followed by two days the announcement last Dr. Crawfis would quit.

Quitting are Dr. Jean Gardner, head psychologist, and Miss Estlin Blackley, director of social service.

Dr. Gardner said she would leave "not later than Aug. 15" because she felt political interference made it impossible to carry out an advanced program. Miss Blackley said she quit for reasons growing out of "current political manipulations."

Dr. Crawfis said he would present their resignations formally to the board when it meets at Hot Springs May 17. He said he expected to have several other resignations by that time.

The hospital and Dr. Crawfis became embroiled in a political controversy last February when Gov. Orval Faubus gave the board Continued on Page Two

Sen. Ellender Confident of Revised Bill

By DWAN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today they are confident a revised farm bill including a soil bank program can become law even if President Eisenhower should veto it.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), who often speaks for the administration, said the bill approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee is "completely unacceptable to me" and he would recommend a veto "unless it is cleaned up."

Young and Ellender predicted, "Congress would override a veto of the present Senate bill."

Aiken objected particularly to a provision for mandatory price supports for next year's crops of oats, barley, rye, grain sorghum, and corn grown outside the principal corn belt.

"More farmers would be hurt than helped by this provision," he said. "It might be wiser to have no new farm legislation than this provision."

Young, who voted with a majority of the Agriculture Committee in approving the feed grain provisions, said most opposition to it "comes from Northeast states and other regions which have cheap feed grains in surplus."

NATO Forces Nations to Change Ways

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nations have an evolutionary biology of their own: they adapt themselves to new conditions or they perish like the dinosaur, or the saber-toothed tiger which became obsolete in their own lifetimes.

Russia and the West are in an evolutionary process. For several years, the Russians have been showing more adaptability to changing conditions than the West. The West is struggling to find new plans to meet the Russian changes.

The struggle was illustrated last week by the meeting of the 10 foreign ministers of the nations which make up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

NATO, strictly a military alliance, was created in the late 1940s by the Western Powers as a defense against Russian attack. This turned out to be a successful adaptation to the new conditions imposed by Joseph Stalin.

By his growth, armaments and reliance on force he had made Russia a public menace which could be seen by the most backward.

NATO forced Stalin to stay behind the Iron Curtain. This was a new environment imposed by the West. Stalin didn't know how to adapt to it. His heirs had more imagination.

Where Stalin failed to destroy NATO by threats, his heirs tried to do it by talk of peace to make war sound unnecessary and thereby induce them to abandon the idea NATO was needed.

Where Stalin alienated his neighbors, his heirs promised them help. They visited them, sent them engineers, cracked began to appear in NATO. One of its members, Iceland, asked the United States to let its forces part of NATO's defense, out of Iceland.

Under Stalin's threats, the NATO members on the Continent had submerged their differences but now differences began to appear. For example, between Greece and Britain over the island of Cyprus.

France has withdrawn three of her divisions from NATO to subdue rebels in North Africa's Algeria. West Germany has been dawdling about creating the army which would be part of NATO's defense.

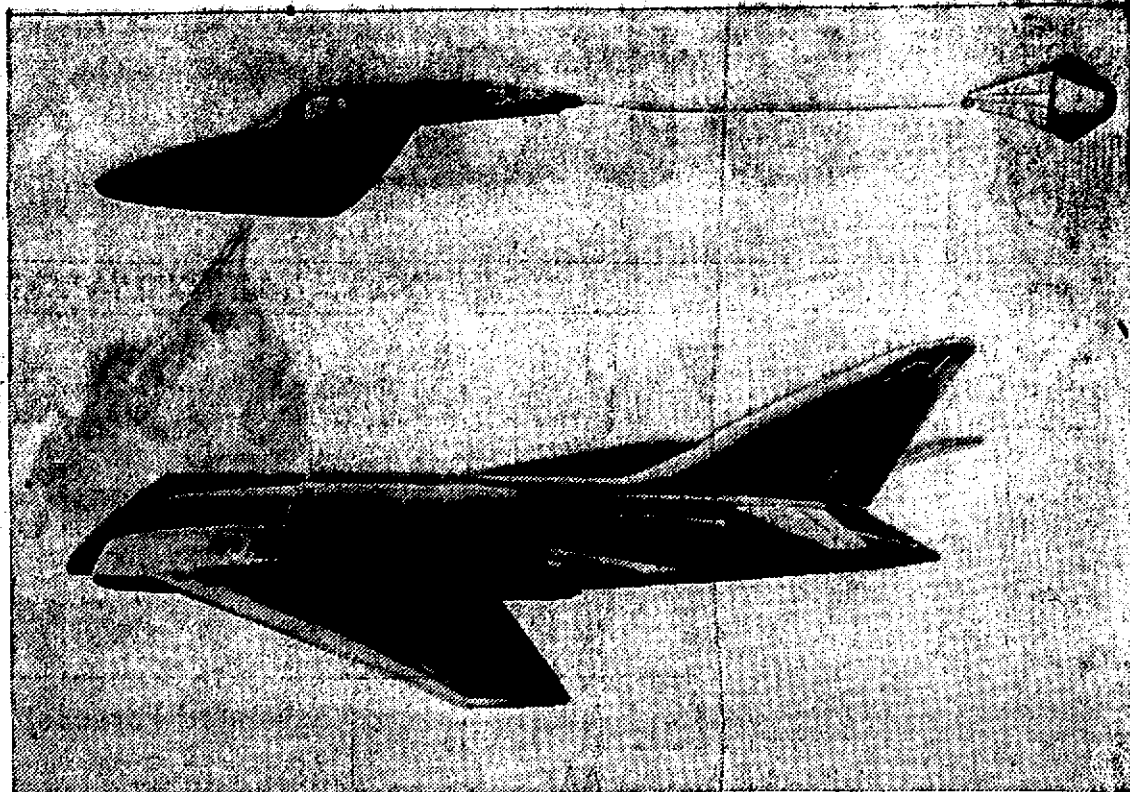

NATO partners began asking questions among themselves. Were they in danger of losing to Russia in the long run? If they thought only in terms of standing behind NATO's military wall.

Or should they think in wider terms for instance in economic help not only among themselves and for themselves but for some of those backward people the Russians were trying to win over with economic help?

Should there even be some kind of political operation among the NATO allies? And surely, there must be some way they could consult among themselves before any of the NATO members took an action which might adversely affect another?

The ministers met in Paris last week, agreed NATO should be kept militarily strong, and found no solution for anything else. They appointed three of NATO's foreign ministers to think up something and report back.

If there is a solution—and there is no assurance there will be—whatever wider cooperation and world planning the NATO allies do may not in the end be done through NATO but through some new kind of organization, leaving NATO to worry strictly about military affairs.

SUPERSONIC POP-OUT—The Navy has just unveiled an "ejectable cockpit capsule" for flipping pilots out of supersonic airplanes. It was shown in model form at the recent Aeronautical Association meeting in Chicago. The capsule, shown in the diagram, forms the nose of the plane. Equipped with stabilizing fins, a small "drag" parachute for the first stage in bail-out and a main parachute system, it would enable instruments, controls and equipment to be saved from a downed plane. The Navy expects the capsule may be ready for use in 1958.

the execution on May 10" of Hill and Shilton.

The circulars were signed "Digenis", the code name of the EOKA leader who has been reported to be a British-trained Greek colonel named George Grivas.

The announcement by the rebels against British authority in this Mediterranean NATO base was expected to intensify the bitter struggle that has torn Cyprus for the last 13 months when the union-with-Greece movement started.

Shops throughout Cyprus already were closed or closing as a general strike crept from one end of the 120-mile-long island to the other. But until the rebel announcement the British were believed to be in firm control.

There had been scattered cases of bombings yesterday, during the night and this morning but the widespread rioting expected did not appear. Today's announcement was almost sure to revive the fighting spirit of the pro-Greek Cypriots.

Should the announcement be confirmed, it would be one of the heaviest guerrilla blows against British army prestige since Israeli partisans hanged two British tom-toms in a Palestine orange orchard during the mandate days in the Holy Land.

That incident provoked Britain to a stormy height of indignation. Twenty-two-year-old Corporal Hill disappeared from his battalion of the Royal Leicestershire regiment in Cyprus in December. He still was listed as missing and had been feared captured and held hostage.

The corporal's mother, Mrs. Alfred Hill, had pleaded with the British government not to hang the 23-year-old Cypriot Michael Karaoilis for fear the underground would hang her son. Britain hanged Karaoilis yesterday as a murderer. The EOKA said it hanged Hill the same day.

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—Military and unofficial reports indicated today the French have killed at least 500 Algerians this week in their drive to check the new nationalist offensive against European farms and settlements.

Some French newspapers in Algiers estimated rebel losses since last weekend at up to 1,000.

The French have admitted only a handful of soldiers killed and slightly more wounded. In addition, 20 European farmers, wives and children were reported slain in western Algeria last weekend in the initial phase of the new nationalist offensive.

The surge of rebel activity continued unabated. Nationalist bands ranged through the vast central North African territory with torch and submachinegun. The French concentrated on vast military sweeps in western Algeria, where 40 farms were burned early this week, and in four persons in executive job to the hospital which it said should be replaced by others. Three proposed replacements were listed by names; the fourth would have been "a person of our choice."

The letter first was reported by the Arkansas Democrat, which said it had received a photostat from an undisclosed source. Later the governor's office released a copy of the letter.

The proposed changes weren't made, and Dr. Crawfis said former member Faber White of Osceola largely was responsible for blocking them. White declined comment.

Two of the persons nominated for dismissal have since resigned—Chief Engineer Harry A. Lasswell and Farm Manager James D. Hannah.

Lasswell quit some months ago. Hannah resigned recently, apparently as a direct result of the controversy which developed after Fabus' in February charged mismanagement and inefficiency to the hospital executive staff.

O. O. McDaniels of Little Rock recommended by the governor's office as a replacement for Hannah, was hired in another position months before Hannah resigned. Dr. Crawfis said McDaniels is now the hospital food manager.

It wasn't clear whether the letter had anything to do with his employment.

ALC to Study Mental Health Department

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A proposal for a state Department of Mental Health, which possibly would draw the State Hospital farther away from political influence, is on the agenda of the Arkansas Legislative Council for next week.

Under the plan various mental health services would be consolidated into a single department. The State Hospital would be the major service involved.

Recommendations for a combined department were submitted recently by a special committee that made a survey of mental health needs and resources in Arkansas.

The survey was made before a controversy arose between State Hospital officials and the office of Gov. Orval Faubus.

If the plan were put into effect by the Legislature, some supporters believe it would help prevent political wrangles over mental health facilities.

Boardman's Fight Style Liked by Fans

BY MICHAEL POSNER
BOSTON. (UP) — Young Larry Boardman, conqueror of two world champions in two months, is a new, surprise candidate to succeed retired Rocky Marciano as the boxing idol of New England.

Boardman, only 20 and just a lightweight, delighted local and television fans with his crowding, non-stop style as he walloped out non-title decisions over both lightweight King Wallace (Bud) Smith and featherweight ruler Sandy Saddler.

They want to see more of the young socker and Boston Promoter Sam Silverman, who calls Boardman "the nearest thing to Dempsey's style in years," will be delighted to oblige.

Larry's father, Sam, who doubles as manager-trainer, said, "the kid is really good with either hand. He lives clean and he gives the fans a good show."

Larry's three - and - a - half year record is 30 victories, 15 by knockout, and two losses. He has been fighting out of Marlboro, Conn., but in September his family is moving to Boston.

"Big-looking for a lightweight, the blond-haired, flat-nosed youngster said, "I was always scrapping in school and I loved it. I told dad I wanted to be a fighter and asked him to train me."

Larry quit high school in his junior year. When the elder Boardman himself pretty fair fighter in the 30's, began schooling Larry on training methods he picked up in the ring and "tricks I knew from hanging around gyms since I was a kid."

Six weeks before a fight, Larry

Bahama Favored in Fight Tonight

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Yama Bahama, a middleweight with a style as bizarre as his ring name, is the 3-1 favorite to beat Hardy (Bazooka) Smallwood in a 10-round fight here tonight.

Bahama was expected to weigh in at about 152 and Smallwood at 158 for the bout in the War Memorial Auditorium. It will be broadcast and telecast nationally (NBC, 8 p. m., CST).

Yama hails from the Isle of Blimini in the Bahamas.

Bahama has won 40 bouts, lost four and drawn twice. Smallwood, a Brooklyn boy, is 10-4-2. Both are 23.

Indian Is Leading Reds on Warpath

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

A solemn-looking Cherokee Indian, who tomahawks the hitters with a sinking fast ball, was leading the Cincinnati Redlegs on the warpath today toward first place in the National League.

The man with the Cherokee blood running through his veins is six-foot-three, 225-pound Hershel Freeman and it was his brilliant relief pitching that earned him his third victory last night, a 6-5 triumph over the Giants which moved Cincinnati into a virtual tie for the league lead.

The Cardinals, also in a virtual first place tie with Cincinnati and Milwaukee, handed the Phils their seventh straight loss, 3-0.

Tom Poholsky pitched a four-hitter for his third victory, getting all the margin he needed when rookie Catcher Hal Smith homered off Herm Wehmeier in the fifth.

For insurance, the Cards added two more runs in the seventh on a single by Wally Moon, Rip Repulski's triple and Bill Virdon's triple.

Rain washed out the games between Pittsburgh and Milwaukee and Brooklyn and Chicago.

In the American League, the Red Sox rallied for three runs in the sixth inning to hand the White Sox their first straight setback, 7-5.

Five consecutive hits off loser Mike Fournelle and Joe Dahlke did the damage. Billy Goodman led Boston's 13-hit attack with three doubles and a single while Sherm Lollar connected for four hits, including a homer, for Chicago. Reliever Tom Hurd was the winner.

Ninth inning errors by Mickey Mantle and Tom Morgan enabled the Indians to beat the Yankees, 6-5. Fireballer Herb Score was credited with the victory although reliever Don Mossi blanked the Yanks in the ninth. Al Rosen and Yogi Berra each homered in a game which saw the Yankees blow a four-run lead.

Faul Foytack of the Tigers recovered his first major league victory by beating the Senators, 7-3. Each team collected only five hits but three of Detroit's hits were a bases-loaded triple by Frank House and homers by Charlie Maxwell and Al Kaline. Roy Sievers homered for the Senators, who suffered their fourth licking in a row.

Camillo Pascual was the loser. Kansas City snapped Baltimore's four-game winning streak, 4-0, behind Art Ditmar's seven hit pitching. Jim Wilson, who had won three games previously, yielded 10 hits in suffering his first defeat.

The Athletics scored their first run in the third inning and added three more on five hits in the fourth.

State Industrial Drive to Be Aired
HOT SPRINGS, (AP) — Arkansas' industrialization drive will be discussed today and tomorrow at the annual convention here of the Arkansas Association of Insurance Agents.

Speakers will include William P. Rock and W. R. Ewald Jr., of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, and Dr. W. Paul Brann of the University of Arkansas' Industrial Research Center.

A. T. Johnson is unopposed for the association's presidency. D. T. Hargraves of Helena and Eric Rogers Jr., of Jonesboro are candidates for vice president.

starts trimming from 140 to his best weight of 133 pounds with four miles of roadwork every dawn and plenty of wood-chopping.

"I keep fighting regularly so I don't really need too much work to keep in shape," Larry said.

Larry's ambition: To win the lightweight title, build a bank account and buy his mother a nice home.

Broadman's paydays have been lean. In Boston he made $2,200 on the Saddler fight but lost $400 on the Smith encounter, when he substituted for the ailing Tony De Marco last February, also in Boston.

But it's New York and Madison Square Garden next for Boardman. He meets Frankie Ryff June 1 in a nationally televised bout, the first in his short but successful career.

Yanks Lose First Series to the Cleveland Tribe

BY D WILKS
Of The Associated Press

This was supposed to be Black Friday in the American League—the day seven clubs awoke to find themselves among the walking dead with the New York Yankees having copped the pennant at the earliest date yet.

That's the way the talk was going. Those Yanks had smacked the Boston Red Sox 4 out of 5 and spanked the Chicago White Sox 2 out of 3. All they had to do was fast - shuffle the Indians and of Casey Stengel had the deck stacked against them.

But the Cleveland Indians put a stop to all that. The Tribe won the rubber game of a three - game series going away yesterday at Yankee Stadium. The 7-2 victory lifted them past Boston into second place, two games behind New York.

Boston went down 2-1 to Chicago, which snapped a five-game losing streak.

Those were the only two games played in the majors. All the other schedule d contests were rained out.

Bob Lemon, who couldn't get the job done in six tries against the Yanks last season, went the route with ease yesterday on an eight - hitter. His only mistakes were home runs batted to Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra. It was Mantle's 11th, Berra's 10th.

The Indians gave Maury McDermott a fit. The veteran southpaw was rapped for five of the Tribe's eight hits and four runs in five innings.

George Kell and Minnie Minoso homered to end the White Sox's slump, but it was the nifty relief job of Bob Keegan, who took over from Connie Johnson with one out and the bases loaded in the first inning, that clinched it.

Keegan, a right-hander with a 9-4 lifetime mark against the Sox, had their number again, getting Jim Piersall on a double-play ball on his first pitch and then scattering seven hits the rest of the way.

Landy Continues to Hold Spotlight

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — There are 61 events and 1,450 competitors for tomorrow's West Coast Relays but the affable Australian school master John Landy and the mile run command the No. 1 spot.

The world record holder from Melbourne whose 3 minutes 58 seconds at Turku, Finland, is the fastest mile ever run will face four others including Ron Delany, the Irish lad from Villanova University, in a race starting at 8:10 p. m. (CST).

Heading the field events are Fortune Gordien, world discus record holder at 194 feet 6, and the Rev. Franklin (Bud) Field, who holds the javelin mark at 268 feet 2½.

Sprinter Mike Agostini, the speedster from Jamaica who attends Fresno State College, heads 28 entries in the 100-yard dash. Last week he tied the world record of 9.3. He has a 20.1 in the 220 up for approval as a new record.

In Her HONOR

Yes-sir-ee, the world voted her a day and Heaven was glad. Right now you should wrap up your heart in a card or a package and deliver it at once. She gave you life and love... what have you given her? Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket when cold, our light in a dark room... it takes Mother every time.

There is something very special, something extra that comes only from mother... she makes us tick. Life will not change Mother's love, death will not conquer it. She is the soaring cloud of radiant rapture that lifts us to new attempts and the strength we need to see us through. This is Mother's Day, may we be with her in Church.
